IN SERVICE AROUND THE WORLD

United States Army
The U.S. Army Special Operations CH-47D and MH-47E fleets are configured for the ERFS. The ERFS II is currently being fielded for the US Army CH-47D fleet.

United States Marine Corps.
The USMC has taken delivery of the Tactical Bulk Fuel Delivery System (TBFDS) for use in its CH-53E fleet. The TBFDS is substantially identical to the ERFS.

Royal Air Force
The RAF Chinooks are operating ERFS.

Japan Defense Agency
The first ERFS was delivered in 1995 for use in the CH-47J and fielding is ongoing.

Netherlands
The Royal Netherlands Air Force CH-47’s are equipped to operate ERFS.

Singapore
The Republic of Singapore Air Force equip their CH-47SD helicopters with ERFS.

Egypt
The Egyptian Air Force CH-47’s are equipped to operate ERFS.

Australia
The Australian Army CH-47’s are equipped to operate ERFS.

Robertson Fuel Systems reserves the right to make configuration or data changes at any time without notice.
The facts and figures contained in this document do not constitute any offer or contract with Robertson Fuel Systems.